for A Line

1. At his request, I conferred today with Paul Kamerick, Chief of the Staff of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Mutual Security. Mr. Kamerick recently returned from an inspection overseas which included looking into the amount of strategic materials going into East-West trade. but in turn seeks our assistance in learning the cope of the leaks in East-West trade. I informed him that while we releived some information on this subject in the course of our endeavors, we nly had one piece of the picture and that other Departments maintained ther pieces. I stated further that if we supplied him with certain infornation which he desired for the Committee, it would only be a small piece if the total picture and that other Departments were in a position to give im the total East-West trade picture. He thereupon requested me to asertain for him from whom he might best request official information on the total East-West trade picture for the Subcommittee, and I told him that would attempt to ascertain that answer.		8 January 1953
